

FIRE RESTRICTIONS ORDER RESCINDED

United States Department the Interior
Bureau of Land Management

Effective 12:01 a.m. on Friday, September 29, 2006 the following fire restrictions on BLM managed lands in Utah have been rescinded:

Pursuant to regulations of the Department of Interior, 43 CFR 9210 the following acts are prohibited on the area, roads, and trails, described below until rescinded by the Utah State Director, Bureau of Land Management:

1. Setting , building, maintaining, attending, or using open fire of any kind, except campfires within approved fire pits and grills provided for, in improved campgrounds, picnic areas, and permanently improved places of habitation, or except as otherwise authorized. Devices fueled by petroleum or LPG products are allowed in all locations.
2. Smoking, except within an enclosed vehicle, camp trailer, or building, a Developed recreation site, or while stopped in an area at least three feet in diameter that is barren or cleared to mineral soil.
3. Discharging, or using any kind of fireworks, tracer ammunition, or other incendiary devices in any location on federal, state, and unincorporated private lands.

The following persons are exempt from the order:

All other fire restrictions, or necessary exemptions to the restrictions, will be handled through local “permits” issues by the responsible agency(ies) for that purpose.

Area Description:

All Bureau of Land Management lands in Utah west of I-15 from Box Elder County to Washington County.

Individuals violating this order can be subject to fines and associated fire suppression and rehabilitation costs.

Information concerning these fire restrictions may be obtained at www.utahfireinfo.gov and local Bureau of Land Management offices.
